CLANIMATE YOUTH

First online meeting developed

The first online meeting was developed in date 06/07/2021. During the first virtual meeting, the coordinator presented the project and described all the actions to be developed. All the partners had the opportunity to describe their organizations and their activities and expertise. It was the occasion to speak also of the pandemic situation in all countries and to decide to postpone all the mobilities planned into the project to a better and safe period, to reduce the risk of contagious for the participants (youth workers and young people).
